People & Change: Elizabeth Kershaw

support UBC

it's yours

From building new lecture halls and state-of-the-art laboratories, to enhancing the student learning experience, the efforts in fundraising within UBC help nurture the brightest minds and the school reach its full potential. We spoke with Elizabeth Kershaw, Manager at the Development and Alumni Engagement office at UBC Okanagan shared her insights on how the Okanagan campus is gearing up for Workday.

Did You Know...

All UBC employee expense transactions will be streamlined using the Workday Expense Module available on the desktop and mobile app. This means no need for paper forms!

Just take a picture of your receipts, and start your expense reports from any location and device

Intuitive expense descriptions no longer require memorizing or looking for account codes

Expenses incurred using a UBC VISA Card & P Card are automatically synchronized to your account, saving you time during the review process

Intuitive user interface with online review and approval workflow means you get reimbursed faster!

Transforming our systems and processes to improve how we collaborate and innovate.

Readiness Survey Results

In April, the Integrated Renewal Program (IRP) conducted a change readiness assessment to measure the university's overall preparedness for change. The assessment consisted of a readiness survey, sent to all staff and faculty via UBC Broadcast, and focus groups with select staff and faculty.
